“What mysteries we shall one day see unveiled!”

-St. Therese of Lisieux

Today is Trinity Sunday

The first Sunday after Pentecost is the Festival of the Holy Trinity. On this day, the church rejoices in the impenetrable mystery that God is trine (three-in-one) - Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

How the Lord can be one God in three distinct persons is completely beyond the ability of any human to understand. By the power of the Holy Spirit, Christians accept this incomprehensible mystery as a fundamental article of faith.

“Father all-powerful, Christ Lord and Saviour, Spirit of Love.

*You reveal yourself in the depths of our being,
drawing us to share in your life and your love.*

One God, three Persons,

*be near to the people formed in your image,
close to the world your love brings to life.*

We ask you this, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, one God, true and living, forever and ever.”

This Sunday is the start of Ordinary Time

In his apostolic letter approving the Roman calendar, Pope Paul VI noted some important facts about the liturgical year:

- ✦ Over many centuries, Catholics had become accustomed to so many special religious devotions that the mysteries of redemption lost their proper place. This was due to the large number of vigils, holydays and octaves, and to the growing dominance of various seasons over the Church year;
- ✦ St. Pius X and Pope John XXIII restored Sunday to its former dignity, so that everyone should once more consider it as the church's original feast day;
- ✦ The popes restated the traditional teaching of the Church: The celebration of the liturgical year has a special sacramental power and force which nourishes and strengthens the life of Christians. The Church year is not merely a recalling of the historical events by which Christ won our salvation;
- ✦ The reason for the restoration of the liturgical year is to help believers through their faith, hope and love to share more fully in the entire mystery of Christ as it is unfolding throughout the year.

It's a wonder troubled teens

"Covenant House has helped me tremendously. I've gotten off drugs and found work. But I think the best thing is that they've helped me feel better about myself, to be more confident."

Church Cleanliness

A lot of people have complimented on the cleanliness of the church and the church compound. This is something that we can be proud of. We thank everyone who keeps the church and the compound tidy. In an effort to maintain the cleanliness, everyone is reminded, to please avoid bringing in food and drinks inside the church. Kindly make sure that when you leave the church, there are no litters left behind. Your cooperation will be very much appreciated.
