Canada Day – July 1

Let us mark this day by praying for our country and our leaders, and by taking a few moments to give serious consideration to our responsibilities as citizens; we should consider what we are doing for peace in Canada and in the world. Let us make sure that the spiritual aspects of this day's celebration are given their proper place and not lost in the holiday.

On July 1, Canada Day:

- Mass will be at 9:00 a.m.
- No Adoration on Wednesday.
- Office will be closed on July 1st and 2nd.

Plenary Indulgence during the Year of the Priest

According to a decree made public and signed in Vatican City, Pope Benedict XVI will grant priests and the faithful Plenary Indulgence for the occasion of the Year for Priests, which runs from 19 June 2009 to 19 June 2010 and has been called in honour of St. Jean Marie Vianney.

Obtaining the Plenary Indulgence are as follows:

(A) All truly penitent priests who, on any day, devotedly pray Lauds or Vespers before the Blessed Sacrament exposed to public adoration or in the tabernacle, and ... offer themselves with a ready and generous heart for the celebration of the Sacraments, especially the Sacrament of Penance, will be granted Plenary Indulgence, which they can also apply to their deceased confreres, if in accordance with current norms they take Sacramental Confession and the Eucharist and pray in accordance with the intentions of the Supreme Pontiff. Priests are furthermore granted Partial Indulgence, also applicable to deceased confreres, every time they devotedly recite the prayers duly approved to lead a saintly life and to carry out the duties entrusted to them.

(B) All truly penitent Christian faithful who, in church or oratory, devotedly attend Holy Mass and offer prayers to Jesus Christ, supreme and eternal Priest, for the priests of the Church, or perform any good work to sanctify and mould them to His Heart, are granted Plenary Indulgence, on the condition that they have expiated their sins through Sacramental Confession and prayed in accordance with the intentions of the Supreme Pontiff. This may be done on the opening and closing days of the Year of Priests, on the 150th anniversary of the death of St. Jean Marie Vianney, on the first Thursday of the month, or on any other day established by the ordinaries of particular places for the good of the faithful.

Partial Indulgence is offered to all faithful each time they pray five Our Father, Ave Maria and Gloria Patri, or any other duly approved prayer "in honour of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, to ask that priests maintain purity and sanctity of life".
